

The University of Oklahoma College of Pharmacy

PGY2 Internal Medicine Residency Program Structure

July	August – November ^a	December	January – June
Orientation (required) – up to 1 month • Residency program • Teaching plan development • Research • OU College of Pharmacy • OU Medical Center (including training for clinical staffing)	Introductory Internal Medicine (required)—2 months Internal Medicine subspecialties (required) – 1 month each • Inpatient Infectious Diseases • Medical Intensive Care Unit Ambulatory Care (required) – 1 month ^b • Internal Medicine Clinic • Family Medicine Clinic • Solid Organ Transplant Outpatient Services	Research & Scholarship (required) – as a part of longitudinal experience ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting Winter holidays	Research & Scholarship (required) – 1 month Advanced Internal Medicine (required)—2 months • Student precepting required for at least 1 of the 2 months Medicine subspecialties (required) – 2 months (if not already completed) Electives – 2 months
Longitudinal Experiences: July-June • Research & Scholarship (required) • Teaching (required) • Clinical Staffing (required) Longitudinal Experiences: January-June • Leadership & Practice Management (required) ^a Specific months are subject to change ^b Six-month longitudinal may be available based on preceptor availability		Elective options (may not be an all-inclusive list) • Any of the required learning experiences may be repeated if desired • Emergency Medicine • Transitions of Care • Solid Organ Transplant Inpatient and Outpatient Services • Family Medicine Inpatient and Outpatient Services • Intensive Care Unit Subspecialties: Trauma and Surgical	