

PGY1 Pharmacy Residency (ASHP Accredited)
Program Structure (Updated September 2025)

Core Rotations: 9 required rotations

1. Orientation to OU College of Pharmacy and OU Health (1 month) – July
2. Inpatient Internal Medicine (1 month) – “Fall Semester”
3. Clinical Staffing Orientation - December
4. Practice Management (1 month)—Offered in February-April
5. Research (1 month) – “Spring Semester”
6. General Pediatrics (1 month) – “Fall Semester”
7. Inpatient Infectious Diseases (1 month) – typically “Spring Semester”, but can be “Fall Semester” if needed
8. Critical Care (1 month): – “Spring Semester”
 - a. Medical Intensive Care Unit
 - b. Trauma Intensive Care Unit
 - c. Pediatric Intensive Care Unit
 - d. Pediatric Cardiac Intensive Care Unit
9. Ambulatory care (1 month): - “Fall Semester”
 - a. General Internal Medicine Clinic at OU Physicians Building
 - b. Head and Neck Oncology Clinic at Stephenson Cancer Center
 - c. Outpatient Family Medicine at OU Health
 - d. Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Clinic at OU Children’s Physicians Building
 - e. Cystic Fibrosis Clinic at OU Children’s Physicians Building

Elective Rotation Sites: 3 one-month rotations from below:

1. Ambulatory Care – see options above
2. Neonatal Intensive Care Unit
3. Intensive Care - see options above plus:
 - a. Surgical Intensive Care Unit
 - b. Neuro Critical Care
4. Emergency Medicine
5. Solid Organ Transplant (in-patient and out-patient)
6. Family Medicine (in-patient)
7. Inpatient Antimicrobial Stewardship
8. Pediatric Nephrology
9. Transitions of care
10. Clinical Toxicology (Oklahoma Center for Poison & Drug Information)
11. Second experience in any of the required rotations^a
12. Other^b

Longitudinal Experiences:

1. Longitudinal Research: July-June
2. Longitudinal Teaching and Methodology: July-June
3. Drug Information and Medication Use Evaluation^c: July-June
4. Service Commitment (staffing component): July-June
5. Longitudinal (6-month) Ambulatory Continuity Clinic^d: January-June in one of clinics listed below:
 - a. Head and Neck Oncology Clinic
 - b. General Internal Medicine Clinic
 - c. Outpatient Family Medicine Clinic
 - d. Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Clinic
 - e. Cystic Fibrosis Clinic
 - f. Other^b

^aSeparate learning experience description and rotation objectives will be required

^bOther opportunities can be explored depending upon the resident’s interests and preceptor availability

^cIn conjunction with OU Health, the PGY1 resident will complete longitudinal assignments through the given experiences.

^dResidents participate in one clinic for a half day each week, chosen from the 3 given clinic settings.